

Vocabulary Review

For each sentence, fill in the blank with the correct vocabulary term. Highlight/underline the context clues in the sentence. Use the vocabulary list on page 47 of your ISN to help you. Attach to pg. 46 in your ISN.

Making sure everyone is treated fairly and equally is what _____ is all about.

When the President gives a speech about how to deal with gun violence in America, Congress will write his idea up as a _____ and debated it.

Bob couldn't afford to pay his _____, so he had to remain in jail until his trial.

The _____ makes the laws for the President to sign.

The _____ carries out the laws created by Congress.

The _____ makes sure the laws created by Congress and signed by the President follow the Constitution and are fair.

We have _____ in our country because we have police.

People originally didn't like the Constitution because it didn't protect the rights of the people. So, _____ were added that changed the Constitution.

Before you are sentenced to jail, you have the right to _____.

Because our freedoms are protected now and for _____, future generations don't need to worry about losing their rights.

One goal of our government is to protect the _____ of the people by providing free education, food stamps, and basic healthcare.